

Pierre Geulen's Bio

Pierre is the CEO and founder of the Planon Group. Planon is the global market leader in the market for facility management and real estate software. It has its headquarters in Nijmegen (The Netherlands). In the early 1980's Pierre graduated in structural engineering and industrial business management. He started Planon in 1983 as an engineering firm. In the 90ths Planon transferred into the software company it is today. Nowadays, Planon has a global workforce of over 750 professionals and offices in 12 countries. Pierre has always driven the innovation agenda of Planon. Introducing new workplace technologies and innovative employee service concepts in the workplace. The Covid-19 crises will lead to fundamental changes in the way organizations will use workplaces. Technology and big data can help establish the right actions and focus points.